5. Your eligible loan amount already accounts for the following expenses: tuition & fees, on or off-campus housing, meal plans, food, books & supplies, transportation and personal expenses.

Which of the following eligible expenses will you have? Check all that apply and provide required documents.

Requesting an appeal may take up to 3 weeks to process.

- Above average on-campus housing expenses:
Your cost of attendance can be increased if your on-campus housing charges are more than the average cost of $11,292 we provided. On-campus housing includes the following residence halls.
- Computer purchase:
Student budgets can be increased for the purchase of a computer, up to $2,000, during your attendance or within a reasonable period of time before classes begin. You must provide a receipt from your computer purchase or this request will not be considered.
- Caregiving expenses (maximum $1,812/month per dependent): Student budgets can be increased for a portion of caregiving expenses incurred during the period of attendance. Include a copy of the contract or letter from your service provider.
- Residential Academic Program (RAP) fees
If you're approved to cover these fees but you're not billed for them, your loan may be delayed upon disbursement while we decrease your loan amount accordingly.
- Gold Student Health Insurance Plan (SHIP):
If you're approved to cover these fees but you're not billed for them, your loan may be delayed upon disbursement while we decrease your loan amount accordingly.
- None of the above
This option indicates you do not have any eligible expenses, so your private loan will be confirmed at the stated amount.

Required: If you complete Question 5, please attach a letter explaining the circumstances behind your request.

If approved, increases in the Cost of Attendance (also known as student budget) typically only allow the student or parent to borrow more loans.

I acknowledge that requesting any change(s) to the loan amount, intended semester or submitting an appeal can delay the processing of the loan, especially during high volume times.

By signing this form, I certify that all the information provided is complete and accurate.
