

Le Bulletin Français

Qu'est-ce qu'on regarde?

LUPIN

Lupin is a French heist series on Netflix created by George Kay starring Omar Sy, and it has become the first French series to reach the US top 10 on the platform. The show and the character of Assane are inspired by the beloved French character Arsène Lupin, a gentlemen thief created by author Maurice Leblanc in 1905. In Lupin, Assane Diop played by French star Omar Sy is a con man with a heart of gold who is a master of deception despite his outsized presence.

L'expression du mois

devenir chèvre:
/də.v(ə).niʁ ʃɛvʁ/

Literally meaning 'to become a goat,' 'devenir chèvre' can be translated as 'to go crazy, to go nuts, or to be driven mad.'

My French Film Festival

LINK:

HTTPS://WWW.MYFRENCHFILMFESTIVAL.COM/EN/

Du 15 janvier au 15 février, découvrez le meilleur du jeune cinéma francophone partout dans le monde !

Between January 15 and February 15, discover the best of new-generation French-language cinema all over the world!

La sélection 2021 s'organise autour de thématiques représentatives de la diversité et de la vitalité du cinéma francophone.

The film selection in 2021 is organized around themes that reflect the diversity and vitality of French-language cinema.

FrancoFiles, a podcast that's like a Rendez-vous for Francophiles in the United States!

Featuring exclusive interviews, FrancoFiles seeks to take every francophile in the U.S. on a transatlantic rendez-vous with notable French and American guests. Hear experts talk firsthand about their experiences of the collaborations and cultural crossover between these two oldest allies. From the pre-revolutionary era to today's modern tech movement, explore with FrancoFiles the ever-evolving relationship between France and the U.S. Brought to you by the Embassy of France, support from France-Amérique Magazine. (France-Amerique)