Colloquium & Happenings

Looking for Grad Students for Colloquium Committee!

The Colloquium Committee is a faculty-led committee that organizes the GEOL colloquium program, including inviting and scheduling speakers and managing their campus logistics, and providing a post-colloquium social hour. GSGA sends two student delegates to represent the graduate students on the Colloquium Committee. The student representatives solicit feedback from the graduate students on topics and speakers to invite for the weekly Colloquium talk, attend Colloquium Committee meetings, help send out relevant weekly information about Colloquiums.
