

Summer Session Graduate Student Faculty Appointments Summer 2020

Only degree-seeking, graduate level students are eligible to hold student faculty appointments. All AY policies for student faculty appointments also apply for summer unless noted below.

Students enrolled in Professional Masters Programs are not eligible to hold student faculty appointments.

ACA Note: All students employed at 75% time or above may be eligible to enroll in CU employer health insurance. Please provide all graduate student employees with a copy of the ACA FAQ for Graduate Students.

Position Information: Position Information: All summer appointments for student faculty must be entered as an additional job, distinct from any academic year job. A different position number must be used for AY and summer appointments. New position numbers should be created for the Summer Session appointments, or you may be able to reuse existing summer position numbers. When creating a new position or reusing an existing position for TAs or GPTIs be certain to use the correct summer session FOPPS (Summer 2020 – program 28888). RA and GA positions should not be associated with summer sessions FOPPS.

Tuition Remission

All eligible student faculty receive tuition remission as part of their compensation package, regardless of whether it is an AY or summer appointment.

Enter tuition remission information in CU-SIS on the CU waiver entry screen. Navigation: Student Financials>CU student financial custom>CU waiver entry (term 2204). Instructions on entering tuition remission can be accessed on the bursar's website:

<https://www.colorado.edu/bursar-campus-resources/tuition-remission>

In order to be eligible for tuition remission, TAs and GPTIs must work at least one full summer session term. RAs and GAs must work a minimum of five weeks at a minimum of 15% time. Tuition remission must be used during the summer session. A student is not allowed to carry-over tuition remission into another term. For example, a student that is a 50% TA in Term A must use their tuition remission during the summer session; they cannot carry-over the tuition remission into the fall semester. Note: As opposed to AY appointments, summer appointments do not come with a contribution towards the cost of insurance.
