Internship Credit

Internship credit will count toward the history major/minor as a 4000-level elective course.

A maximum of 6 internship credit hours may be applied to the history major and a maximum of 9 internship credit hours may be applied to a degree in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Internships are offered on a mandatory pass/fail grading basis only. Courses offered on a mandatory pass/fail grading basis do not count toward the maximum number of pass/fail credits a student can apply to a degree in the College of Arts and Sciences.

To receive credit, all internships must have prior approval. Credit will not be given retroactively. Registration for internship credit must be completed by the second week of classes in a given semester.

Would you like to receive internship credit? YES NO MAYBE

I understand that applying for an internship does not guarantee I will receive an internship position.
