

History Master's Program Graduate School Links and Procedures

Coursework -Check with your advisor, the handbook, or your degree audit for requirements.

If you need to transfer credit from an outside institution, that should be done early in your academic career, after you have completed 6 hours of credit hours toward your program. Use this form:

Transfer Credit Request Form

If you are on the Thesis Track, complete this form early in your program:

Master's Thesis Plan Form

As your final semester approaches, notify the department's education coordinator at HistGrad@colorado.edu and pay close attention to these fast-moving deadlines for graduation requirements from the Graduate School:

Graduate School Deadlines for MA Students

For MA students, the deadline to apply to graduate and the deadline to Apply for Candidacy happen early in the semester. You must do both to graduate in your planned term, using the portal to apply to graduate and the link on the Deadlines page to apply for candidacy. Review the checklists linked on that page for your plan as well.

Once you have your thesis or portfolio defense scheduled, plan to submit the Master's Final Examination Form at least two weeks prior to your exam date. Also inform the Education Coordinator (HistGrad@colorado.edu) as to who will be on your committee, the date of your defense, and the title of your thesis.

Monitor the deadlines for Thesis Submission for your term and plan in advance to have your work formatted according to the required guidelines. The Graduate School recommends that a pre-check of your format be done before you submit the final version. You can request that by e-mailing a pdf of your thesis to gradinfo@colorado.edu. You will also need to plan ahead so that you can send and receive your Thesis Approval Form before the submission deadline. Give your Committee Chair and member enough time.

Graduate School FAQ Page