GLOBAL ISSUES AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

This course will analyze and discuss key concepts, approaches, and issues that are the cornerstone of studies in international affairs. We will cover a range of topics including development, war and conflict, environmentalism, immigration, and other issues that have come to shape the world stage. We will also discuss current affairs in the geographic concentrations of Europe, Africa & the Middle East, Asia, and Latin America. This class serves as a gateway for continued studies in global affairs and involved global citizenship. By the end of this course, students will be equipped with the tools and background necessary to better understand current events from an interdisciplinary perspective.
