Faculty and Staff Engagement Survey - Overall Results 2023
Faculty and Staff Engagement Survey 2023

- The Faculty and Staff Engagement Survey is administered by the CU Boulder Department of Human Resources in partnership with the Arthur J. Gallagher Co. Gallagher’s Engagement Survey Consulting team provides survey distribution, analytics, benchmarking, leading-edge reporting and action planning technology.
- The survey is sponsored by CU Boulder Provost Russ Moore and Chief Operating Officer Pat O’Rourke.
- The survey measured several research-based elements of engagement—enthusiasm for one’s work, career satisfaction, pride in the institution, intent to stay, connection to the mission of the institution, and others. The 2023 survey also measured aspects of faculty and staff wellness, as well as information on the hybrid work environment.
- Survey findings provide insight into the impact of leadership actions, provide trending data on key themes of importance to the campus community, and inform action planning.
- As part of the survey modeling and design efforts, the reliability of our survey items and thematic groupings of items are confirmed through multiple regression modeling (to understand the magnitude of the empirical relationship between survey items and key outcomes of interest), factor analytics (to ensure the integrity of the survey categories), various tests of validity (such as criterion and predictive validity, and non-statistical variations such as face validity), as well as reliability testing such as Chronbach’s alpha (to assess how well items are coalescing as categories).
