

Halloween's coming up and you know what that means! Yup, it's time for pumpkin carving! If you want to make the spooiest pumpkin or even a trumpkin, come to the Smith Hall pumpkin carving contest! Join the flock leaders in the lobby this Thursday (October 27th) from 7:30-9:00 pm to show off your skills or just have some fun carving boo-tiful pumpkins!

Upcoming Events

Thursday October 27, 7-9 pm Smith Great Room

Pumpkin Carving

Attendance Tracker Punch: Yes

Join your fellow Honors RAP students for the annual pumpkin carving contest. We'll have pumpkins, carving tools, and tarps on the floor so you can make a beautiful mess. Carve a masterpiece! Win a prize for best carved pumpkin!

Wednesday November 2, 6 pm Hellems 241

Movie Night

Attendance Tracker Punch: No

Join Dr. Gerland to watch Ryan Gosling, Steve Carell, and all your favorite actors in The Big Short, followed by a riveting discussion!

Monday October 31, 6:15 pm Smith Lobby and Kitchen

Halloween Fun Fest!

Attendance Tracker Punch: Yes

Be a kid again! Go trick-or-treating (the lazy college student way-flock leaders will bring you candy), eat Halloween treats, show off your costume and enjoy the classic Halloween movie Hocus Pocus. Halloween activities will begin at 6:15 pm!

Thurs., Oct. 27th
7:30PM
Smith Hall Lobby

Compete to win prizes for the pumpkins that are the
Most Honors RAP
Most Creative
Most Classic
& More!

Attendance Tracker Punch: YES

Sponsored by the Honors RAP

HALLOWEEN FUNFEST

6:15PM COSTUME CONTEST IN SMITH LOBBY

Come show off your unique Halloween costume
Compete to win prizes
Bonus points for staying in character during the contest

7:30PM HALLOWEEN TREATS IN SMITH KITCHEN

8:30PM "HOCUS POCUS" MOVIE IN SMITH LOBBY

REVERSE TRICK-OR-TREATING

The student leaders will be walking around Smith throughout the evening bringing candy to you!

Attendance Tracker Punch: YES

Brought to you by the Honors RAP

We will be interrupting your regular flock programming this week for a spook-tastic night of pumpkin carving. After Halloween we will return to our usually scheduled flock events!

Be sure to bring your punch cards to flock events! Remember that you can get one punch (from one event) per week for attending flock activities though you can attend more than one event. It is your responsibility, NOT the flock leader's responsibility, to get your card punched WITHIN the week of the activity!

Avery, Your Hair's On Fire

By Chelsea Magyar

If a member of Avery Phillip's improvisation troupe, Left Right Tim, told her that her hair was on fire, she would probably say, "Yes it is, and I'm toasting a marshmallow in it."

This exemplifies the improv rule yes, and. "So any time a partner gives you a suggestion," said Phillips, "you never shut them down... you always agree." Even if the person suggests that your hair is burning.

Phillips, a freshman and Smith Hall resident, started improv in high school when a friend recommended it to her. She stuck with it ever since. "I like how the entire goal is just to have fun and make people laugh. That's just a good use of my time."

Phillips joined Left Right Tim, one of CU's improv troupes, at the beginning of the semester. "The people in it are really great," said Phillips. "It's a great close-knit group of people... we just play. It's great."

Phillips will make her debut with the troupe in one of its weekly performances on Friday, October 28. It will take place in Hale 270 from 8:00-9:00 pm. Admission costs $3.