

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Thanks to all who attended the Honors RAP Symposium last Thursday night. We were treated to the insights of faculty members Rob Buchwald, Steven Dike, Olivia Miller, Zach Owens, and Paul Strom in response to a Chipotle video commercial, "The Scarecrow." We also were treated to presentations about the benefits of student leadership by Anisah Spahn, Laney Winkler, Serene Singh, and Kyla Jung, the last of whom also created an amazing video.

I sent out a link to Kyla's video and the leadership application materials earlier today via email. Apply soon and enjoy a well-deserved Fall break!
