An Evening with Diane Guerrero

Presented by the Cultural Events Board

April 10th at 7pm

Diane Guerrero will speak about her journey as the daughter of undocumented immigrants who were deported when she was only 14 years old. Guerrero is best known for her roles in "Orange is the New Black" and "Doom Patrol" and she has become a leading voice in the national conversation on immigration and social justice. This event will be on April 10th at 7pm in the Glen Miller Ballroom. Get your tickets today!
