

Marketing Internship (Volunteer Opportunity) – Rocky Mountain French American Chamber of Commerce

The Rocky Mountain French American Chamber of Commerce (RMFACC) is seeking a Marketing & Communications Intern to support the Bastille Day French Festival 2025, a premier cultural celebration taking place July 11–13 at Fillmore Plaza in Cherry Creek North, Denver. This is a unique opportunity for students or emerging professionals to gain hands-on experience in marketing, communications, and event promotion within an international and multicultural environment.

About the Festival:

Bastille Day French Fest is RMFACC's largest annual event, a vibrant three-day celebration of French culture and its global connections. From live music and wine tastings to artisan markets and fashion shows, the festival draws thousands of attendees.

Key Responsibilities:

- Assist in creating and distributing the monthly newsletter and weekly email blasts
- Design social media graphics and captions to enhance engagement
- Support event promotion and marketing efforts
- Help manage and update communication materials
- Provide general support across festival operations, including vendor coordination, volunteer management, and sponsor communication

Qualifications:

- Interest in marketing, communications, international events, or nonprofit management
- Excellent writing and organizational skills
- Experience with Canva, Mailchimp, and social media platforms is preferred
- Ability to work independently in a fast-paced environment
- French language skills are a plus but not required

Internship Details:

- Time Commitment: 10–15 hours/week
Duration: Immediate start through August 31, 2025
- Compensation: Unpaid; however, includes access to exclusive networking events, RMFACC membership benefits during the internship, and a recommendation letter upon successful completion

If you are passionate about marketing, international business, and French-American relations, we'd love to hear from you!

To apply, please send your resume and a brief statement of interest to executive_director@rmfacc.org by June 15th.
