UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

the CU INVOLVEMENT awards
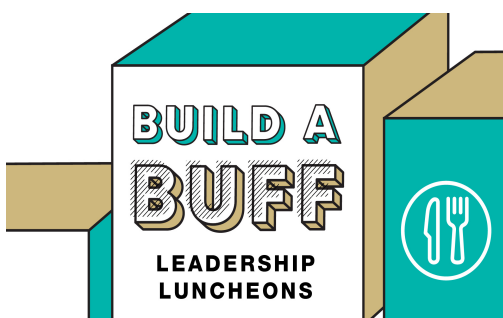

CU Involvement Awards

The CU Involvement Awards is a free and open event that celebrates students, student organizations, faculty and staff who exemplify leadership and passion across the Boulder community. Join us for this year's CU Involvement Awards ceremony on Tuesday, April 16. Nominations are due March 15.

OFFICE SPACE & LOCKERS AVAILABLE

Apply for free office space or a UMC locker

A central office is a fantastic way for your RSO to become more accessible and productive, helping you grow membership, promote your message and fulfill your mission. CSI also has lockers available for student organizations to use. Apply by Feb. 29.

BUILD A BUFF LEADERSHIP LUNCHEONS

Build a Buff Leadership Luncheons

Develop and practice key leadership skills, broaden your perspective on leadership and connect with like-minded peers in the CU Boulder community. The March 6 event will focus on student leaders of color. Come discuss your experiences as a student leader of color at CU and build community. Learn more.

Student Philanthropy Month

During Student Philanthropy Month, in partnership with The Herd Leadership Council, 15 students will deliver meaningful services that engage current students with the Forever Buffs alumni community. Interested in partnering? Reach out to Sara Abdulla.

Submit your video to Senior Class Council

Senior Class Council is looking for videos from CU students that document their time at CU Boulder. Interested in participating? Submit your video.
