

H-1B Visa/Status Processing Overview- Boulder

Estimated submission time to USCIS: 6 to 9 weeks.

Sponsoring department submits the H1B Export Review Questionnaire to the Office of Export Controls. For LASP employees, contact Colin Blumer (export.compliance@lasp.colorado.edu).

- Documentation from the export controls review must be submitted in the H-1B Visa Status Request (DocuSign).

Processing Time: 2-4 weeks

The sponsoring department gathers required documentation and submits a complete H-1B packet to ISSS.

ISSS reviews the Request. If documents are missing or additional information is needed, ISSS contacts the sponsoring department and/or H-1B beneficiary.

ISSS Processing Time: 5 to 10 business days

ISSS analyzes and determines an appropriate prevailing wage based on U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) requirements.

ISSS Processing Time: 5 business days

After the prevailing wage determination is complete, ISSS submits a Labor Condition Application (LCA) to the DOL.

DOL Processing Time: 7 business days

After the LCA is certified, ISSS prepares the H-1B petition. ISSS contacts the sponsoring department staff member with a P-Card and submits the H-1B petition online to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

USCIS Processing Time: 4-7 months for regular processing

15 days for premium processing unless USCIS requests additional evidence

Current processing times

All H-1B fees must be paid by the sponsoring department through a P-Card.

- In limited instances, the H-1B applicant may pay the premium processing fee. Contact ISSS for details.
