

H-1B Visa/Status Petition Checklist

tems Required from the Sponsoring Department
	Actual Wage Memorandum
	H-1B Support Letter
	Copy of signed offer letter with all required signatures
	 Visa Export Certification Form from the Office of Export Controls For LASP employees, contact Colin Blumer (export.compliance@lasp.colorado.edu) for a Visa Export License Certification
The department must also request H-1B fee checks through CU Marketplace and submit to ISSS.
	 □ A check for $460 (for government filing fee) □ If filing an initial H-1B petition, a check for $500 (for government fraud detection fee) □ If requesting premium processing, a check for $2805 (government premium processing fee)
tems Required from the H-1B Applicant
	Copies of your current passport page(s) showing expiration date and biographic information
	Copy of your current curriculum vitae (CV) or resume
	Copies of your professional degree diploma(s)/certificate(s) for all degrees (U.S. and foreign) and academic transcripts if the field of study is not listed on a diploma/certificate • If the diploma is not in English, you must also include a translation and Certificate of Translation. The translation cannot be done by you or a family member O Certificate of Translation: The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that they are competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification must also include their signature, printed name, the signature date, and their contact information. Copy of professional credential evaluation for any foreign degree(s) that qualifies applicant for the position
	 Credential evaluations can be obtained from members of NACES or AICE Copies of current and previous visa stamp(s) In most cases, Canadian citizens do not require a U.S. visa
	Copy of most recent I-94 Arrival Record or, if last arrival to the U.S. was prior to April 2013, copy of the front and back of the paper I-94 card
f yc	ou :
	 Held F Status: Copies of all prior I-20 forms Were on Optional Practical Training (OPT): Copies of proof of employment for all positions while on OPT. Proof of employment needs to confirm the dates you worked, how many hours per week and how the position(s) related to your major. Proof of employment can include: Print out of your OPT Employment data from the SEVP Portal Paystubs W-2 Forms Offer letter confirming the number of hours of employment per week and that the work was in your major field of study I-983 (for STEM OPT)
	Were Issued an Employment Authorization Document/Card (EAD): Copy of the front and back of the EAD
	Held J Status: Copies of all prior DS-2019s

	Held J Status and Obtained a Waiver of the Two-Year Home Residency Requirement: Copy of the Form I-612
	Waiver Approval Notice
	Held H-1B Status in the Last 6 years: Copy of your I-94 Travel History in H-1B status
	Held H-1B, L-1, O, or TN Status: Copies of all prior Form I-797 Approval Notices
	Are Transferring or Extending an H-1B: Pay statements from the last three months
	Are Transferring an H-1B: Employment verification letter from current employer
	Filed a Form I-140 and/or Form I-485 : Receipt and/or approval notices for any Form I-140 and/or Form I-485 applications
If the Job Requires Minimum Employment Experience:
	Letters from previous employers indicating job title, employment dates, and description of job duties Letters must be on letterhead paper and include original signatures.

Requesting H-4 Dependent Status for Family Members (Spouse or Children)

The spouse and unmarried minor children (under 21-years of age) of an H-1B employee are eligible to obtain H-4 dependent status. H-4 filings and visa applications are the responsibility of the H-1B scholar and their dependents. Please carefully read the information below to determine which option applies to your family:

Applying for H-4 status from outside of the U.S.:

Dependents can obtain H-4 status outside of the U.S. by applying for an H-4 visa and going for an interview at their nearest U.S. Embassy or consulate, then entering the U.S. with the H-4 visa. The H-1B Approval Notice must be issued by USCIS before submitting an H-4 visa application. H-4 visa applications can be started online; a visa interview at a U.S. embassy is also required. Contact the U.S. Embassy or consulate where the visa interview will take place for specific information.

Canadian citizens are exempt from visa requirements; therefore, Canadian citizen spouses and children eligible for H-4 status enter the US directly with a copy of the H-1B's Approval Notice and other required documents.

Applying for a Change of Status to H-4 or an Extension of current H-4 status from inside the U.S.: Dependents applying for a change of status to H-4 or an extension of their current H-4 status while staying in the U.S. must complete the appropriate application with USCIS. ISSS does not provide advice on the specifics of this process or file this application with the H-1B petition; if you have questions, please consult USCIS or an of this process or file this application with the H-1B petition; if you have questions, please consult USCIS or an immigration attorney.

The general process is outlined below for an Extension or Change of Status with USCIS. It may be possible to complete the Form I-539 online. Review the USCIS website to determine if you are eligible to file online.

- Complete the Form I-539 and if required, Form I-539A (when filing for H4 status for more than one dependent).
 - If filing for a Change of Status to H-4 or for an Extension of Current H-4 status, review the USCIS website for instructions, access the Form I-539 and I-539A, filing tips and filing fees.

Note: A Biometric appointment is no longer required for any person who submits an I-539.