

Confirmation of Final Semester

Full-time Enrollment Requirement

Immigration regulations require F-1 and J-1 students to be enrolled full-time, or an authorized equivalent, every semester of their degree program. Students in their final semester are eligible to be less than full-time enrolled. Physical presence (attending at least one on-campus course) is a requirement during a final term. To receive approval to be less than full-time in your final semester, please complete the information below.
