  Online through DocuSign

✔ Immigration Essentials for F-1 and J-1 Students Session (you are doing this now!)
Immigration Rules

KNOW THE RULES
so you can
FOLLOW THE RULES!
It is your responsibility to know the rules!
(but we are here to help!)
Passport

Key Information about your passport:

- Your passport should always be valid for 6 months into the future.
  - Federal regulations suggest a passport end date at least 6 months after your program end date.
  - Federal guidance suggests having a passport end date at least 6 months from your date of entry.
- Your passport cannot expire while you are in the U.S.
- Renew your passport through your embassy or your consular office in the United States.
Maintain Your Records

You should keep all copies of your immigration documents forever.

- NEVER THROW YOUR DOCUMENTS AWAY!

ISSS will keep records of your documents for 3 years after you graduate.

- These are only copies – you have the original documents!
Port of Entry Passport Stamp

Date of Entry:
Your date of entry will be stamped.

Status:
Your status should be either: F-1 or J-1.

Expiration of Status:
D/S (stands for duration of status)
I-20 (F1) or DS-2019 (J1)

- This document is evidence of your immigration status as a student in the United States
- You need it for entry to the U.S.
  - Must be active in order for you to remain in the U.S.
  - Remains active by you maintaining your F-1 or J-1 status
- Keep every I-20/DS-2019 that you ever receive!
- Make sure your I-20/DS-2019 is accurate at all times.
- The expiration date depends on when you complete your course of study.
Entry Visa

Key information about your visa:

► Your visa is an entry document. You need your valid visa to enter a port of entry in the U.S.

► It is allowed to expire while you are in the U.S.
  ► An expired visa cannot be used to re-enter the US—you must get a new one.
  ► Duration of Status (D/S) ≠ Visa End Date. These will likely be different!
  ► Please note the number of entries

► You cannot renew a visa inside the U.S.

► Your visa can be revoked (invalidated)!
I-94 Admissions Record
Establishes status in the U.S. AND
Records your arrival and departure

Review your I-94 after every entry to the U.S. to ensure your information is correct.

Maintaining Legal Status

Maintain full-time course enrollment

- Undergraduates: 12 credit hours each semester.
- Graduates: Usually 5 credit hours, depends on your graduate status.
- What counts toward those credits?
  - Online courses: only 3 credits of distance learning will count toward your full-time requirement.
  - Courses taken for no credit DO NOT count toward your full-time requirement (e.g. audit classes).
  - Courses taken as pass/fail DO count toward your full-time requirement.
Every fall and spring semester a hold will be placed on all F-1 and J-1 records. It prevents you from dropping below a full-time course of study without prior authorization from ISSS. It does not affect your ability to enroll in future semesters, only to drop for the current one. Visit ISSS and speak with your academic advisor if you plan to drop a class.
Grace Period (Legal Presence after Graduation)

- Grace period
  - J-1 visa holders: 30 days
  - F-1 visa holders: 60 days

- The grace period allows participants to settle their affairs and to prepare to return to their home countries. Program participants may no longer continue and/or complete their F-1 or J-1 activities, nor may they work during the grace period.

- If you do not complete your degree, you will not receive a grace period in most cases.
Warnings & Consequences

- Driving Under the Influence (DUI) offense:
  - Your visa will be cancelled!
  - A conviction is not required, just an arrest.
  - If you exit the U.S. with a revoked visa, a new visa will be required for re-entry. If your visa is revoked, you could be sent back by the airline before boarding the plane, before connecting your flight, or at a Port of Entry.

- Federal vs. State law (marijuana)
  - You may become ineligible for future benefits, such as employment.

Be smart, be safe – keep your status!

Health Insurance

- The deadline to waive the Gold Plan coverage and submit immunization records for fall 2019 is August 1\(^{st}\)

- Contact Health and Wellness Services directly with questions.
