

Ekar Farm – Spring and Summer Internship Opportunities 2021

Are you looking to work at the intersection of food and climate justice work and farming? Ekar Farm seeks part-time unpaid interns to work 10 – 12 hours a week.

Ekar has benefited greatly from the presence of energetic and passionate interns. We welcome the opportunity to cooperate with any university programs to provide credit. We are committed to offering interesting, fulfilling, and fun internship experiences to give you practical work experience and a firsthand view of a successful nonprofit organization. Ideal candidates major or minor in Judaic Studies, Urban Studies, Agriculture, Environmental Sustainability, Biological Diversity, Ecology, Non Profit Management, Environmental Sciences, Community Food Systems, Social Justice, Early Childhood Education, Outdoor Education, etc. Students from underserved, marginalized backgrounds encouraged to apply.

Ekar Farm is Denver's Urban Farm inspired by Jewish values. Our interns have the opportunity to assist Ekar in the following projects:

- Ekar is working on a slate of regenerative and environmentally sustainable projects and we welcome collaboration. You may work on low and no till farming practices, water catchment and gravity fed irrigation, native plant restoration, and more. When weather permits.
- Strengthen Denver's food system by representing Ekar in a wide range of collaborative projects. Coordinating with our food bank and food pantry partners.
- Support institutional change with research and coordination among our 17 Seal of Sustainability partner organizations.
- Joining our farm crew when weather permits.

While you provide useful assistance to Ekar, you will gain valuable on-the-job training that will assist you with your future career search. Your supervisor will work with you closely to set your personal goals for your internship experience and help you develop marketable skills for your future. Your supervisor will be your resource to make sure you are on track and will meet with you regularly, providing effective feedback and meaningful guidance.

Intern responsible to supply own computer, phone, workspace, and transportation to and from Ekar Farm in Lowry (when COVID restrictions are lifted). Interns are provided with real work and real responsibilities; as such we seek mature candidates with strong follow through and work ethic. The ideal candidate is passionate about the intersection of food, sustainability, and interested in Jewish-inspired values. Candidate enjoys working/being outdoors; is organized, responsible and reliable, self-motivated, detail-oriented, has a professional demeanor; is a compassionate interpersonal communicator able to interact with a wide range of people from all backgrounds; able to do small tasks while thinking big; and is a team-player who contributes to a friendly work atmosphere.

To apply, contact Hannah Perez-Postman at Hannah@ekarfarm.org