

Our Collections

$1,517,000+
spent on e-resources

$367,000+
spent on print resources

438,000+ downloads from our online repository

1,649 new CU Law publications
added to online repository

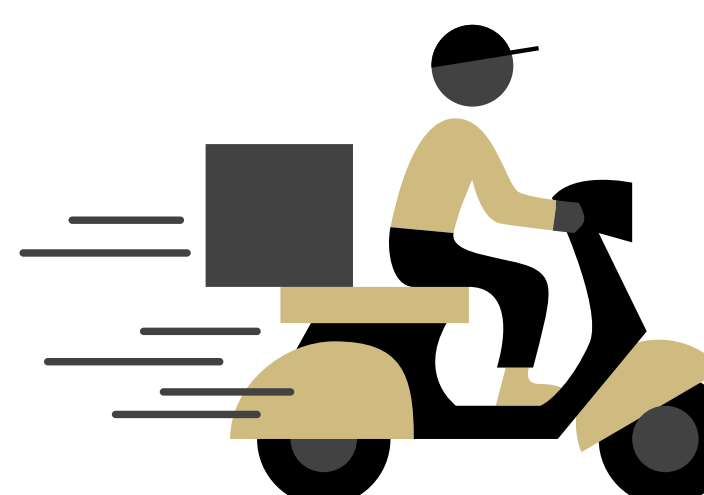

Want more info on our collections? Contact Jacob Nunnally (Jacob.Nunnally@colorado.edu)

Our Services

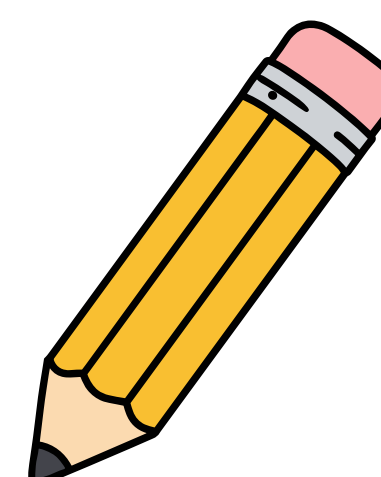

Courses taught:

- NEW required Foundations of Legal Research
- NEW Legislative History
- NEW Scholarly Legal Research
- Interactive Programming for Lawyers
- Colorado Legal Research
- Legislative Drafting

4,020 items shared

- 377 borrowed from other libraries
- 175 shared to other libraries
- 3,468 items circulated

1,081 research questions answered

- Faculty/staff: 441
- Students: 262
- Bench/Bar: 143
- Public: 235

Want more info on our services? Contact Karen Skinner (Karen.Skinner@colorado.edu)

Accomplishments

- Initiated a major collection management project.
- Relocated 14,000 journal volumes offsite to create future student study space.
- Placed 200+ books on reserve to support student learning and faculty teaching.
- Purchased a substantial number of faculty-authored works to enhance our Faculty Publications collection.
- Curated themed book displays by month, including women's history, labor law, and PRIDE month.
- Taught a legal research session during Wolf Week.
- Hosted student trainings, called Wise Up Workshops, on dockets, litigation analytics, and free and low-cost resources.
- Surveyed students and faculty about library services and spaces.
- Ran fun and welcoming activities like the Halloween costume contest and Woof and Wellness therapy dogs.

About Us

- 10 faculty librarians, 5 support staff, and 33 student workers
- We welcomed our new Associate Director for Resource Access and Discovery, Jacob Nunnally, this year.

Looking Ahead

- Prepare for the ABA site visit
- Advanced Legal Research course - coming this fall
- More Wise Up Workshops in development
- Commence Library Renovation Project
- Explore a Legal Research Certificate
- Continue our weeding initiative

Interested in our new or planned initiatives?
Talk to a librarian!