

WHEREAS, 125 years ago the regents of the University of Colorado “decided to open a law school at the University”; and

WHEREAS, in the years and decades that followed, the University of Colorado Law School has produced some of the finest lawyers in our state, including six Colorado governors, countless public servants, and individuals who, true to their oath, use their “knowledge of the law for the betterment of society and the improvement of the legal system”; and

WHEREAS, the faculty, staff, and students of the University of Colorado Law School, provide assistance to Coloradans through academic scholarship, clinics, education, and personal public service; and

WHEREAS, today we celebrate the 125th anniversary of the University of Colorado Law School and its contributions to our state; and

WHEREAS, we look forward to even greater achievements and contributions in its future;

Therefore, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, do hereby proclaim June 8, 2017, as in the State of Colorado.

125TH ANNIVERSARY OF UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO LAW SCHOOL DAY

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado, this eighth day of June, 2017

*John W. Hickenlooper
