

FINAL/STATUS REPORT
(Period Ending June 30, 2016)
Campus Entrepreneurship Initiative
Seed Award

If your project is not yet complete, please use the questions to provide an update on the current status of your project. You should also submit a final report upon program completion. BE AWARE THAT ALL PROJECT FUNDS WILL BE SWEEPED BACK TO THE SEED AWARD MASTER ACCOUNT ON JUNE 30, 2016.

Note: If your project is tied to publications or presentations completed as part of your own research or creative work, you may replace questions 5-9 with a brief summary of your findings, written in accessible language, and include the appropriate citation or article link.

1. Program Title:
2. Awardee Name(s):
3. Participant Counts:

Identify the number of people in each category inside CU-Boulder who actively participated in the project:

- Tenure-track faculty
- Other personnel, including non-tenure-track faculty and staff
- Undergraduate Students
- Graduate Students

Identify the number in each category who participated in the project or were directly impacted:

- Community members besides businesses/entrepreneurs
- Community businesses/entrepreneurs
- Policymakers or community leaders
- Members of the public (adults, youth, etc.)

Total participants (inside CU and external to CU) =

4. Approximate time spent on project:
 - Preparation hours
 - Service hours (hours involving actual service, teaching, development, etc.)
 - Total hours

5. Please describe:
 - what activities occurred
 - which specific groups, schools, and communities were involved
6. Please describe the project's impacts on CU faculty and staff, CU students, and/or your audience.
7. Please describe any data gathering methods you used to assess the project's impact and gather information from participants (surveys, anecdotal feedback, data comparisons, observations, etc.).
8. Include any other comments about your project. For example, did you experience any unintended results? Challenges? Surprises?
9. Given what you know now, how might you maintain, improve upon or expand this program?

Please send your final report Andrew Marchant at Andrew.Marchant@colorado.edu