

COLORADO LAW
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

International Human Rights Speaker Series

Sept. 17

Outcome Bias and Expertise in Investigations of Military Actions under International Humanitarian Law / Tomer Brode, Sylvan M. Cohen Chair in Law, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Sept. 24

Human Rights Challenges in Latin America / José Miguel Vivanco, Executive Director, Human Rights Watch, Americas Division

Oct. 1

Dubravka Simonovic, United Nations Special Rapporteur on violence against women, its causes and consequences

Oct. 8

The Need to Refine the Indigenous Rights Regime as it Pertains to Lands, Territories, and Resources (Free. Prior. Informed. Consent; the four least helpful words in the indigenous rights discourse) / Mattias Ahren, Professor of Law, University of Tromso, Norway

Nov. 12

An Insider's Look at the U.N. Human Rights Field Presence in Guatemala / Maia Campbell, Human Rights Officer, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner of Human Rights, Guatemala office

TBD

Leilana Farha, United Nations Special Rapporteur on adequate housing as a component of the right to an adequate standard of living, and on the right to non-discrimination in this context

Wolf Law Building
Room 307
4:00-5:00 p.m.

Register for individual sessions:
colorado.edu/law/events

Law and other graduate students can attend the speaker series for 1 academic credit by enrolling in Law Dean James Anaya's Special Topics course, LAWS 8708-802.