Virtual Interviews – What to Expect

When your interview schedule is set, we will provide you with a Zoom meeting link to connect you with the students and help facilitate these remote interviews. We will be there (virtually) to greet you and answer any questions you may have.

The Zoom room will be set up with breakout rooms for each employer interviewing that day. The interviewers will simply join their breakout room and conduct all the interviews while the CDO administrator keeps track of the schedule and sends students into the breakout room at the right time. Our interviewers have found this process to be very simple, seamless, and easy to navigate.

In-Person Interviews – What to Expect

Interviews will take place in the Wolf Law Building at CU Boulder. We will send parking instructions to the job posting contact the Tuesday before the interview. Interviewers will come up to the third floor and meet us in the Career Development Office in Suite 327. The interviews themselves will take place in a study room attached to our office, or in a small classroom nearby if we have a lot of employers that day. We will provide interviewers with water and snacks.

For those staying the whole day, Foolish Craig's runs a café on the second floor of the Wolf Law Building ("Lawless Craig's") Monday through Thursday which serves coffee, sandwiches, pizza, and more. There are also a number of restaurants directly across the street including Doug's Day Diner, Noodles & Company, Brewing Market Coffee, Taj Indian Cuisine, May Wah, Subway, Wendy's, Taco Bell, Einstein Bros. Bagels, and Starbucks.

EEO Policy

The University of Colorado Law School Career Development Office provides its students and graduates with equal opportunity to obtain employment without discrimination or segregation on the grounds of race, ethnicity, color, religion, national origin, sex, pregnancy, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, age, disability or veteran status. By utilizing the services and facilities of the Career Development Office you are agreeing to abide by that principle and to comply with the Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) laws established by the federal and Colorado governments.
