“Web-scale Discovery Tools and the Backgrounding of Government Information.” Presentation given at the Electronic Resources & Libraries Conference by Chris Brown

Presentation was held on Adobe Connect and was well attended

Library Updates

Regis: Regis is celebrating their 100th year as a Government Depository

Denver Public Library: The new city librarian is Michelle Jeske

CU Boulder: Held a great event to celebrate the Rocky Mountain National Park centenary and were able to promote the government information library to well over 100 attendees

DU Law: By the end of the year, technical services will be gone (duties go to tech services at DU library)

UCCS: Ron is continuing with his retroactive conversion process; there is also a search for a new Dean of the library

CSU: Mike Culbertson is officially retiring (congrats to Mike!). Naomi Lederer will be taking over Government Documents duties (she is a selector for history and English). They have done a lot of weeding and Mike wanted to thank Leanne Walther for all of her help with the big shipments. They are retroactively cataloguing a large collection of War Department documents

Adams State: They are doing an inventory of government documents and it should be complete by summer. The library is purchasing EDS for their discovery service

State Publications Library: Samantha created a finding aid to Colorado Blue Books (voting guides). This can be found here: <http://www.cde.state.co.us/Stateinfo/qgbluebook>

CU, Tassanee: Soon CU will be hiring a LTIII Government Information Cataloguing position

CU, Carole: Item conversion update: soon they will be working on the Children’s Bureau and moving on to C13’s (Bureau of Standards mono’s) and NACA Technical Notes

DU: The music library and science librarian positions have been filled
