This document is intended to provide general information, but it is not intended to, nor does it, create a contract between CU Boulder (defined as the University of Colorado Boulder, a campus of the University of Colorado) and residents. As a condition to living in CU Boulder housing, residents signed a contract. In the event of any conflict between the housing contract and this Residential Handbook, the housing contract shall control.

Failure to comply can subject residents to disciplinary action under the Student Code of Conduct and termination by University (defined as the Regents of the University of Colorado, a body corporate, that is the governing board of the University of Colorado system, the department of Residence Life and the employees at CU Boulder acting on the university's behalf to provide services) of the housing contract.

UPDATES

CU Boulder reserves the right to update the Residential Handbook at any time. Updates become effective after the updated Residential Handbook is posted on CU Boulder's housing website.

“Living on campus and being a part of Residence Life provides you with some really amazing opportunities to find and create meaningful connections during your college experience.”

The University of Colorado Police Department (CUPD) provides comprehensive information on security awareness, crime prevention and education as well as data and information on crimes on and around campus. Additional resources are available through CUPD's website. Residents are encouraged to accurately and promptly report all crimes to CUPD and other campus offices. To report an emergency, call 911. For a non-emergency, call CUPD at 303-492-6666 or use the online crime reporting tool. Additional guidance on reporting an incident or a crime is available on CUPD's website. Information is provided below regarding the most frequently reported crimes or incidents within university housing.

SLACKLINING AND HAMMOCKS

Slacking is an activity in which the participant walks on a span of nylon climbing or slacklining webbing, positioned horizontally with the ground below and securely anchored at two fixed points. Hammocks consist of a swinging couch or bed made of net or cloth, typically tied between two poles or trees. Slacklining and hammocks are permitted only in accordance with the Campus Use of University Facilities Procedures.

SMOKE FREE CAMPUS

The Smoke Free Policy prohibits the use of smoking products of any sort on all CU Boulder-owned and operated campus grounds both indoors and outdoors. “Smoking,” as used in this policy, means smoking any substance, including but not limited to; tobacco, cloves or marijuana. “Smoking Products” include, but are not limited to; all cigarette products (cigarettes, bidis, kreteks, e-cigarettes, juuls, etc.) and all smoke-producing products (cigars, pipes, hookahs, vaporizers, etc).

THEFT

Theft, including but not limited to possessing property known to be stolen and taking property of another without consent, even with an intent to return the property, is prohibited. If theft occurs, report to CUPD via 303-492-6666. This policy also covers items taken from the following areas:

- Laundry room
- Resident room, apartment and community spaces
- Dining center

VANDALISM

Vandalism is the act of tampering with or causing damage to CU Boulder property or the property of another person. Examples of vandalism can include tearing down community bulletin boards, defacing surfaces, tampering with or damaging university elevators, fire extinguishers, walls, ceilings, signage, bathroom fixtures, furniture, doors, etc. Vandalism is prohibited and is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. Property damage to CU Boulder buildings and property may result in student conduct restitution charges.

We strive to create safe and welcoming communities, and vandalism negatively impacts everyone's experience living on campus. Holding those who vandalize accountable is a responsibility of all community members including professional staff and residential students.

Additionally, residents are not allowed to hang onto or swing from pipes and other ceiling, wall or exterior building fixtures as this can damage the building.

WEAPONS

Residents are prohibited from bringing, carrying or storing any weapon or firearm in CU Boulder Housing, including any handgun(s) carried in accordance with the Colorado Concealed Carry Act on or in university housing, including common areas. The term “weapon” applies to any item which in the manner it is used or intended to be used is capable of producing, or causing in persons the fear of, bodily injury or death. Examples of such items include but are not limited to: real or simulated firearms (e.g. stun guns or Tasers); pocket knives/knives or other bladed items (e.g., swords, sabers, spears); striking devices (e.g., bludgeons, clubs, canes, wooden swords, nunchakus) and replicas or likenesses of such devices. Kitchen knives for food preparation in apartment style halls are permitted.

GUEST POLICY

GUESTS

Guests are defined as anyone not assigned to a residential room, suite or apartment. This may include friends, family members, or other persons related to or affiliated in any way with the resident.

- Residents are responsible for the behavior of their guests, including other students or non-students and must inform them of CU Boulder policies. Residents are not permitted to host any individual who has an active trespass restriction prohibiting entry into University owned or operated property.
- It is expected that roommates discuss their preferences with respect to all visitation in the room/apartment. Visitation of one roommate should not infringe on the rights of other roommates. Resident rooms/apartments are to be occupied only by those assigned to the room/apartment by University Housing and are not to be occupied by or loaned to other residents or non-residents.
- Guests must be escorted (e.g., to and from restrooms and lounges) by the host resident(s) at all times.

OVERNIGHT GUESTS

Overnight guests are allowed only with the consent of other roommates, and are restricted to a maximum three (3) day stay at any one time and no more than a total of six (6) nights of overnight stays per month.

Overnight guests are not permitted, regardless of roommate consent, during final exam periods or the weekend preceding final exams. Exceptions must be approved with building professional staff members.

USE OF COMMON AREAS

- Lounges and other common areas of the building are provided for the use of residents. These areas are only intended for use by CU Boulder students and approved Center for Student Involvement (“CSI”) clubs and organizations. Furniture may not be moved to a different location or resident room for any reason, unless approved by Residence Life Staff. Spaces are reserved or closed on a case-by-case basis by University. Residence Life departmental activities will have the first priority for the scheduling of facilities.
- Residents may not loiter in a lobby that they are not assigned to.

HEALTH AND SAFETY REQUIREMENTS TO MITIGATE COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

Residents must comply with all applicable governmental and public health orders and CU Boulder requirements addressing a health or safety crisis, including, but not limited to mitigating the risk of infectious disease, including COVID-19. Despite University's reasonable mitigation efforts, university housing is inherently a communal environment where the resident may be exposed to infectious disease.

PERSONAL AND AREA HYGIENE

When residents are on campus, good personal and area hygiene practices should be followed, including:

- Wash hands frequently with soap and water, or use hand sanitizer, collectively referred to as "hand hygiene."
- Keep living space clean; disinfect it daily, especially if you leave the space.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose and mouth.
- Cover your mouth and nose with a tissue when coughing or sneezing, or use the inside of your elbow. Discard the tissue immediately.
- Pay attention to your health, observe any symptoms you may have, and be aware of reporting mechanisms if you become ill.

CLEANING AND DISINFECTING YOUR LIVING SPACE

Clean laundry and assigned space regularly. Those in spaces with common areas, bathrooms, sinks, etc. should keep those spaces clean as well. Some things to pay close attention to when cleaning include:

- Phones, laptop keyboard and mousepad
- Microfridge door handles
- Sink faucets (if living in a space with private bathroom or sink in room)
- Door handles
