UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Welcome to the Spring 2018 MASP e-newsletter!

Happy New Year! We hope that you enjoyed receiving our inaugural MASP electronic newsletter last fall and we are excited to send you this second update from MASP this year. We hope you will enjoy reading on through the rest of this newsletter to catch up with what is happening in MASP and learn about some of our current students. We are also gearing up to celebrate MASP's 25th Anniversary here on campus and encourage you to Save the Date and join us this Fall to celebrate!

Update from the Interim Directors

Last semester (Fall 2017), Kate and Karen had the honor of co-directing MASP on an interim basis while MASP's Director was on an overdue sabbatical. Co-directing the program gave us a welcome opportunity to pay attention... Read more

Save the Date: 25th Anniversary Celebration

This Fall 2018 marks Twenty Five years of MASP on CU's Campus! Join us for a celebration on campus during Homecoming October 2018. Read more

New Co-taught MASP Course

MASP Assistant Directors, Kate and Karen, were excited to receive an Undergraduate Education Development Program grant from the College of Arts and Science to develop and teach a new MASP course that they have called, "Student Ambassadors for Inclusive Pedagogy"... Read more

Visualizing the Path of Scholarly Work

We are thrilled to be starting a new initiative that highlights all the amazing research and creative work that our students do. In Spring 2017, MASP received a departmental UROP grant... Read more
