

McNeill Academic Program

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Health Professions

Residential Academic Program

McNeill has a few spaces in the HPRAP for students interested in Healthcare. HPRAP is for 1st and 2nd year students. We offer a variety of courses that are typically taken by students who have an interest in satisfying prerequisites for admission to healthcare professional programs after graduating. The HPRAP events are essential to academic success, as they help in developing a sense of community and connecting with students who possess similar interests.

Location: Kittredge West Residential Hall

McNeill Academic Program

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Health Professions Residential Academic Program

Who can apply?

McNeill students who have confirmed to CU, are in the College of Arts and Sciences and have an interest in medicine and health care professions. Students in these Majors have priority: Integrative Physiology, Molecular, Cellular & Developmental Biology, Neuroscience.

How much does it cost?

Participation in HPRAP requires a $850 nonrefundable program fee per academic year to cover in-residence instruction, academic enrichment, advising, and administration of the academic program.

Participation Requirements

Students must be enrolled in at least one course with HPRAP in both the fall and the spring, and must engage in co-curricular hall activities.

Students typically take 12-16 credits/4-6 courses each semester. You will be pre-registered for 1-2 HPRAP courses and 1-2 McNeill courses.

For more information
scan the QR
code or visit:

[https://www.colorado.edu/hprap/
program-requirements](https://www.colorado.edu/hprap/program-requirements)

To apply, email:

Sophie.Low@colorado.edu

Deadline: April 15th, 2020

