

University of Colorado
Mountain Research Station

2026 SUMMER COURSE OFFERINGS

The Mountain Research Station is located 40 minutes west of Boulder, Colorado in an landscape of subalpine forests, wetlands, and alpine tundra. Field courses span a range of topics and emphasize learning through experiential work in a natural setting.

-Natural History of the Southern Rockies

June 5th to June 17th

-Field Ornithology

June 29th to July 13th

-Flora of the Mountains

July 6th to July 18th

-Feeding Ecology of Animals

July 14th to July 25th

-Lake and Stream Ecology

July 27th to August 13th

-Forest and Fire Ecology

July 27th to August 8th

Students from ANY institution can register for courses!

Plan now, registration opens March 9th

Scan here to learn more →

Or visit <https://www.colorado.edu/mrs/>

Contact Nathaniel Neal for any questions nathaniel.neal@colorado.edu

