

Course Credit Registration Instructions 2026 CU Boulder Conducting Symposium

In addition to regular symposium participation, conductors may register to receive one credit through CU's Continuing Education program. If you are interested in registering for course credit, please follow the steps below and email CE-Extraordinary@Colorado.EDU with any questions.

IMUS 5018-750: Conducting Symposium – Orchestra and IMUS 5018-751: Conducting Symposium – Wind Band

1. Go to Continuing Education's "Apply & Enroll" page, click on "New Non-Degree Students", and fill out the "Summer 2026 Continuing Education Application".

Note 1: This is a multi-step process that includes creating an applicant account in order to complete your application form and then submitting the application.

Note 2: International students may also need to submit official scores from a test of English proficiency. Applicants should have at a minimum:

- a TOEFL score of 75 (internet-based),
- an IELTS score of 6.5 or
- a Duolingo score of at least 100.

Test scores are not required for all international students. Students are not required to submit test scores if their native language is English or if they have completed within the past two years at least one year of full-time study at either a U.S. college/university or at a non-U.S. college/university where English is the native language of instruction.

2. You will receive a Welcome email within 48 business hours with your 9-digit student ID number included.
3. Fill out the "Course Registration and Credit Card Payment" form after receiving your student ID number:
