

CU Music Day 2020 Agenda

All event times are listed in Mountain Standard Time

8:00 am – 7:00 pm: Virtual Information Booth is open

7:30-8:00 am

Welcome! Overview and Q&A with Director of Admissions Veronica McClellan and a performance by CU Chamber Music

8:00-8:50 am

Strings Techniques Music Ed class: Join the Music Education string techniques methods course where students learn to play and teach the string instrument family. The topic for this day is: Strategies for developing excellent string tone.

9:30-10:00 am

Musical Theatre vs. BFA: learn about the programs with Professor Matthew Chellis

What's it like to study Jazz Performance at CU Boulder with department chair Professor John Gunther

10:00 am

10:00-10:45 am Observe a euphonium lesson with Professor Mike Dunn

10:00-11:30 am Voice mentoring with current Voice students!

10:20 am

10:20-10:50 Music Education Information Session: Music Education Department Chair Dr. David Rickels will present information about teaching careers in music. Come meet faculty, learn about the Bachelor of Music Education degree, and participate in a question & answer session.

10:20-11:10 Observe Jazz Theory and Aural Foundations 1 with Professor Paul McKee

11:00-11:45 am

What is Music Technology? Learn about our program and see our lab with director Professor John Drumheller

Healthy Tips for Healthy Musicians: Professor James Brody, Director of the Musicians' Wellness Program, will share information about the Alexander Technique and Body Mapping, two strategies for maintaining health and well-being.

11:45 am-12:30 pm

The best places on campus and life at CU: Talk to current music students and find out about hidden gems on campus and life as a Music Buff!

Meet the Keyboard Faculty: bring your questions for Q&A with piano professors

12:00-12:30 pm

Rise Up Flutist Warmup Class with Professor Christina Jennings

12:00-12:45 pm

Virtual lunch/Q&A with Music Ed students: bring questions about Music Ed for current students and learn about NAFME

Meet the Voice Faculty: bring your questions for Q&A with voice professors

Entrepreneurship in Music: What it is and why you need it with Professor Jeff Nytch

12:30-1:15 pm

Observe a piano lesson with Professor Andrew Cooperstock

Observe a jazz saxophone lesson with Professor John Gunther

Meet the String Faculty: bring your questions for Q&A with strings professors

1:15-2:00 pm

Observe a piano lesson with Professor David Korevaar

1:00-1:45 pm

The Entrepreneurship Center for Music IRL (In Real Life): A current student and alumni panel about opportunities, advantages, and personal experiences in the ECM.

Musical Theatre: Learn about our program with current students, and bring your questions for Q&A

1:30-2:15

Observe a saxophone lesson with a special guest artist Clifford Leaman

Observe a tuba lesson with Professor Mike Dunn

Trombone quartet performance: meet the CU trombone quartet and hear them play

1:45-2:30

Voice mentoring with current Voice students!

2:00-2:45 pm

Virtual Tour of Willard Hall: What it's like to live in the Music Buff Community

2:45-3:30 pm

Voice class with Professor Andrew Garland: Come prepared to sing a song!

Live video tour of the Imig music building with current students

3:00-3:50 pm

Observe Jazz Arranging 1 with Professor Paul McKee

3:30-4:14 pm

Tour our state-of-the-art CAML and CRUNCH labs with a composition student

4:00 pm

4:00-4:45 pm Meet DiMA: Learn about the Diverse Musicians' Alliance at CU Boulder

4:00-5:00 pm Voice Studio Observation: observe any of 6 voice studio classes, in which students will sing

4:00-5:10 pm Remote Trumpet Excerpts Studio Class: Observe trumpet studio and meet CU trumpet professors Ryan Gardner and Justin Bartels

5:20-6:15 pm

Meet the "Golden Buffalo" Marching Band: Bring your questions and interact with members of the "Golden Buffalo" Marching Band, and learn about band and ensemble options

Orchestral Repertoire: CU string students discuss and analyze their orchestral repertoire midterm exams with Prof. Erhard and Prof. Sim.

6:30-7:00 pm

A look inside ensemble rehearsal: Observe Japanese Music Ensemble, part of our World Music program

Chamber Music Performance and Q&A with strings students: Join us for a live performance by the Rotunda String Quartet, followed by a Q&A session with strings students

8:00-8:30 pm

CU Oboe Studio: Observe CU Oboe Studio Orchestral Excerpts class and bring questions for Q&A afterwards