

31 recordings to listen to before you graduate

Solo trombone

Ben van Dijk—First Song
Colin Williams—Ash
Jorgen van Rijen—Fratres
Joseph Alessi—New York Legends
Joseph Alessi—Slide Area
Joseph Alessi—Trombonastics

Brass chamber music

Boston Brass Quintet—Any Album
Canadian Brass—Any Album
Center City Brass Quintet—Self-Titled (Arnold/Ewald/Bozza/Maurer/Dahl)
Columbus State University Trombone Ensemble—A Beautiful Noise
International Trombone Ensemble—6.35
New Trombone Collective—New
New Trombone Collective—New Trombone Collective Trombone Unit Hannover—Full Power
Slide Monsters—Travelers

Jazz

Marshall Gilkes—Koln
Miles Davis—Kind of Blue
Jaco Pastorius—The Birthday Album
EnJ—Legend and Lion
Youngblood Brass Band—Word on the Street
Tower of Power—Oakland Zone

Orchestral

Bruckner 8—Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Solti Conducting 1992
Mahler 3—San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, MTT Conducting
Mahler 3—New York Philharmonic, Bernstein Conducting
Shostakovich 5—New York Philharmonic, Maazel Conducting (youtube.com/watch?v=hJFxY0SeohY)
Shostakovich 7—Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Bernstein Conducting 1989
Tchaikovsky 4, 5 and 6—Berlin Philharmonic, Herbert von Karajan conducting 1997/2006
John Adams—Harmonium, San Francisco Symphony 1994
John Adams—On the Transmigration of Souls, New York Philharmonic with Loren Maazel Conducting Mussorgsky—Pictures at an Exhibition, Chicago Symphony, Live with George Solti
(youtube.com/watch?v=UBuSjXObgpw)