Colorado Meet: Platoon Drill Info Sheet

Who:

- Competing teams will have 14 members, 3 squads of 4 people, 1 guide, and 1 commander.
    - The commander may drill with either a firearm or sword.
- MECEPS, OCs, and active duty staff may not participate.
    - For every unauthorized member the platoon 5 points will be deducted from the final score.
- School Unit AMOIs will serve as the judges for the event.
- MIDN Fie is the primary point of contact for this event
    - Jefi2765@Colorado.edu

What:

- Unit teams will compete against each other in armed platoon drill exhibition.
- Event price to compete is $85.
- All units will need to adhere to the Marine Corps Drill Manual
    - If a team believes they were unfairly penalized the team captain may approach MIDN Fie at the operations desk where a copy of the Drill Manual will be referenced. At this time the points will be either rewarded or remain deducted.
- The drill deck will be a 50x50 space. Teams that move out of this space will not be scored on any further movements, however the previous movements will be tallied into a final score.
- The uniform is slicked khaki dress.

When:

- The Colorado Meet will take place on 18MAR2017
- The platoon drill portion begins at 0800 and will officially conclude at 1125.
- Teams will be assigned 25 minute time slot to check in at the operations desk, take the field in competition, and then exit the drill deck.

Where:

- The event will take place in the Balch Field House on the University of Colorado at Boulder Campus
- If they feel the need, teams may warm up on the Buff Walk open space close east of the Meet Headquarters on the corner of Folsom St and Colorado Ave.
- The operations desk will be placed at the entrance of the field house for easy access.
