(8) After Action Report

1. Orientation. The shooting competition of the Colorado meet will take place at the CU Police Department Range and will occur on 4 and 5 MAR 2022.

2. Situation. The University of Colorado Boulder Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (CUNROTC) Rifle/Pistol team is hosting a rifle/pistol competition. The competition will consist of rifle and pistol courses of fire, which are determined by the National Rifle Association's Competitions Rulebook. The teams competing will travel to Boulder Police Department Range in order to participate in the courses of fire. At the conclusion of the competition, each schools' respective teams will return to CU for awards.

3. Mission. The CU NROTC competition teams will travel from CU Main Campus to Boulder Police Department Range on 4-5 March 2022, to compete in the CU NROTC Shooting Competition in order to test military shooting skills in a competitive environment and foster camaraderie between competitors.

4. Execution

a. Commander's Intent

(1) Purpose. The primary objectives of the Colorado Meet are to instill confidence in future Naval and Marine Corps officers, provide an environment for a healthy and challenging competition, as well as strengthen camaraderie between competitors and all working personnel. The Colorado Meet provides an opportunity for all competitors and all personnel to train, demonstrate, and evaluate their leadership skills necessary for performing in The Navy and Marine Corps.

(2) Endstate. All participants of the 2022 Colorado Meet will perform in a challenging and safe environment which will be safe, enjoyable, and productive for all who attend.

b. Concept of Operations. Teams will use the time prior to the competition to improve their skills. Upon teams' arrival to CU they will prove their skills during the competition. After all of the shooting teams finish, they will receive feedback and one team will be named the winner.

c. Scheme of Maneuver

(1) Phase I: Preparing for the competition. The rifle/pistol OIC, AOIC, and team captains will be expected to prepare all the spaces, weapons, and schedules in order to prepare for the respective teams.

(2) Phase II: The Competition. Over the course of 2 days, all teams will compete at the Boulder Police Department Shooting Range in a graded rifle and pistol competition. There will be 2 teams of 4 from each school plus the team captain(s). Participants may shoot on either rifle or pistol, but not both.

(3) Phase III: Grading. The grading of the targets will take place on all days of competition. The targets will be graded according to the Official NRA Rule Book. All scoring will take place after firing has ceased and will be available for review and challenging. Each school will be given all scored material after conclusion of the meet.

d. Tasks

(1) All Participants. All participants will be responsible for the safety of themselves and others at the competition. Teams will be responsible for cleaning and reloading the weapons.

(2) Rifle Teams. Rifle Teams will be responsible for completing the rifle course of fire. (See enclosure 1) Rifle teams will get 20 rounds for warmup and 28 rounds for the graded portion of the competition.

(3) Pistol Teams. Pistol teams will be responsible for completing the pistol course of fire. (See enclosure 2) Pistol Teams will receive 40 rounds for the graded portion of the competition.

(4) Team Captains. The Team Captains will maintain, train and ensure all weapons safety rules are being followed at all times.

(5) Range Safety Officer. The range safety officer (RSO) is responsible for range observation and safety. They have the right to remove competitors if they are deemed unsafe to handle the weapons.

(6) Shooting Competition OIC. The OIC will be the liaison between all the competing schools and the University of Colorado, Boulder. The OIC will ensure that the competition runs fairly and safely.

(7) Shooting Competition AOIC. The AOIC is responsible for helping the OIC with all assigned tasks and communicating with Team Captains.

e. Coordinating Instructions. All Team Captains will be in communication at all times with the shooting competition OIC Staff Sergeant Briggman or AOIC Midshipman 3/C Walsh via cell phone in order to maintain accountability for the training and all personnel through the entirety of the event.

5. Administration and Logistics

a. Administration

(1) Transportation. It is the responsibility of each school competing in the shooting competition to transport all personnel and equipment from their hotel to and from the shooting range once the competition is complete. This year the competition will be held at the Boulder Police Department Shooting Range; See Enclosure (3)

(2) Medical. In case of any medical emergency, self-aid and buddy-aid will be utilized. Any individual with a medical condition that cannot be handed in such a fashion will be transported to the nearest medical facility for treatment. See Enclosure 4 for the Operation Risk Management sheet. The nearest hospital in Boulder is Foothills Hospital, located at 4747 Arapahoe Ave., Boulder, CO 80303, reachable at: (303) 415-7000. See enclosure 5 for directions from the shooting range to Foothills Hospital. Call 911 in a life-threatening situation.

b. Logistics

(1) Supply. Each pistol shooter will receive 4 standard USPSA targets. Each rifle shooter will receive 4 rifle targets. Schools will be able to use rifles and/or pistols from CU NROTC. Schools must use ammunition supplied by CUNROTC.

Subj: COLORADO MEET SHOOTING COMPETITION LETTER OF INSTRUCTION

(2) Uniforms. During the event, the uniform will be NWUs/MARPATs. Pistol shooters have the option to deblouse during the competition.

(3) Gear. Schools are allowed to bring slings, shooting mats and shooting jackets. Schools are required to bring their own ear protection and eye protection. For further information on whether a particular piece of gear is authorized, consult the NRA small bore regulations website or contact the CU NROTC Shooting OIC.

(4) Weapons. CU NROTC will supply the weapons for the competition. For the pistol competition the exact model that will be in use is the Walther USA Colt 1911 Pistol .22 LR 5in 10rd and for the rifle competition the exact model that will be in use is the Smith & Wesson 10208 M&P 15-22 Sport Rifle .22 LR 16in 25rd. Teams will have the option to use their own weapons or the weapons provided by CU NROTC for the competition. If teams choose to use their own weapons the shooting competition OIC will need to be contacted NLT 01FEB22.

6. Command and Signal

a. Command. Shooting competition OIC Staff Sergeant Briggman or AOIC Midshipman 3/C Walsh will be present at the range during the competition and will be reachable by cell phone at all times. Any significant emergencies will be reported up to the Staff AMOI, Gunnery Sergeant Mathews.

b. Signal. All communications that cannot be conducted verbally will be conducted over cell phones during the event.
