What issues are addressed?	Prohibited conduct under university policy includes sexual harassment, assault, and exploitation, intimate partner abuse (including dating and domestic violence), stalking, protected-class* discrimination and harassment, or related retaliation.	Any traumatic, disturbing or disruptive life event. This includes sexual, family or relationship violence or abuse, sexual assault, stalking, discrimination, disasters, mass violence, physical assault, hazing, harassment, crime, and other traumatic experiences.
What services are offered?	Individuals adversely impacted by prohibited conduct can report to OIEC. OIEC equity officers act as neutral fact finders to ensure due process in a formal adjudication that can result in disciplinary action of the accused. They also offer informal, remedies-based resolution options separate from the formal process. Staff also provide safety and support measures to address negative impacts on academic, workplace, or living environments.	OVA advocate counselors provide therapy, safety planning, and self-care support. They also help people explore medical and academic options as well as options for pursuing criminal, civil, university administrative or other legal remedies and offer advocacy throughout any of these processes. OVA is independent from law enforcement and OIEC and reporting is not necessary in order to utilize services.
