TIPS

When midterms roll around, students often find themselves needing a little extra help. Remind your student that tutoring services are available. colorado.edu/orientation/tutoring-academic-support-services

Encourage your student to get involved this semester. Virtual events are a great way to explore, connect with student organizations and to meet fellow Buffs. colorado.edu/involvement

August seems far away, but it's time to start thinking about your student's housing options for next year. Encourage them to browse the online rental database, Ralphie's List and set up a budget for housing expenses next year. colorado.edu/offcampus

Does your student want to work while in school? Suggest a job with CU Student Employment, which is a great way to gain experience and meet other students.

colorado.edu/studentemployment

Encourage your student to use winter break to plan ahead. Think about what they want to accomplish spring semester and ways they can continue to build their resumes.
