CU FIGHT SONG

FIGHT CU DOWN THE FIELD,
CU MUST WIN
FIGHT, FIGHT FOR VICTORY
CU KNOWS NO DEFEAT
WE’LL ROLL UP A MIGHTY SCORE
NEVER GIVE IN SHOULDER TO SHOULDER
WE WILL FIGHT, FIGHT
FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT
HAVE YOU COMPLETED ALL OF THE ITEMS BELOW? MAKE SURE YOU HAVE A SMOOTH START AT CU-BOULDER!

Enroll in fall classes. If you have not already registered, you can do so starting August 17 at 8 a.m. (MT) through August 20 at 7 p.m. All new students will then have access to the registration system to make schedule adjustments on August 21 by enrollment appointment. (mycuinfo.colorado.edu)

@cuboulder. Stay informed and connected with the CU-Boulder community through our social media channels.

Academic advising. Make an appointment or drop in at the main advising center for your college or school. (See the Fall Welcome ongoing events tab at www.colorado.edu/orientation/fallwelcome)

Alcoholwise. Whether you drink or not, or use other drugs or not, this required online course will empower you to make well-informed decisions. (https://3rdmilclassrooms.com)

Bikes. Register your bike online at www.colorado.edu/pts to deter theft.

Buff OneCard (student ID). Pick up your Buff OneCard Student ID at residence hall check-in. Students living off campus should go to the Buff OneCard Office. Have your photo taken at the Buff OneCard Office if you have not yet submitted one online. To have your photo taken, go to the Campus Card Office in C4C N180, 8 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Bring a driver’s license, passport or other government-issued photo ID and your student ID number.

Bystander intervention skills training. Mark your calendar with one of the required sessions offered throughout the first few weeks of classes to avoid having a hold placed on your spring registration. (www.colorado.edu/orientation/fallwelcome)

Cars. Bringing a car for the school year? You can purchase a parking permit for one of the parking lots on campus. (www.colorado.edu/pts)

Community equity in Desire2Learn (D2L). Learn about important information and resources you will need to understand what is expected based on our campus discrimination policies and procedures. Complete to avoid having a hold placed on your spring registration. (learn.colorado.edu)

Disability services. Planning to use accommodations? Submit documentation and schedule an intake appointment. (disabilityservices.colorado.edu)

Emergencies. Be informed. Keep your emergency notification information up to date for real-time information about campus closures and more. (alerts.colorado.edu)

Employment. Interested in working on or off campus? Student Employment can help! (www.colorado.edu/studentemployment)

Fall Welcome. View the comprehensive schedule online or use the Guidebook application.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). To give access to a third party (such as a parent) to your CU information (including academic and financial information), a FERPA Release Form must be signed by the student in person at the Office of the Registrar, Regent 101. (www.colorado.edu/registrar)

Final transcripts. The Office of Admissions requires these official documents from any high school and/or college you attended previously.

Financial aid. Finalize your aid in MyCUInfo (mycuinfo.colorado.edu). Make sure you have completed all necessary Holds & To-Do Items listed on the Academics/Schedule tab. Also Authorize Aid to pay all charges, sign up for Direct Deposit, and authorize the College Opportunity Fund stipend (in-state students only) on the Billing Information tab.

Find your classes. After you enroll in classes, log in to m.colorado.edu/mycuinfo from a mobile device to locate your classes using Google Maps.

Join the herd. This is the Student Alumni Association, which provides fun events and discounts around town. (www.cuherd.org/join-us)

Online new student welcome experience or the pre-arrival orientation for international students in Desire2Learn (D2L). You can also refer back to the information for several months. (learn.colorado.edu)

Technology. Get started with IT and get help (www.colorado.edu/oit/quick-start-guide)
- Install campus-provided antivirus and mobile printer drivers
- Register your mobile computing devices through the CU-Boulder laptop anti-theft registration program
- Leave your wireless router at home; they are prohibited in residence halls
- Bring an Ethernet cable.

Textbooks and supplies. Place your textbook pre-order before August 17 with the CU Book Store! All you need to know are your courses. You can charge your pre-order to your tuition and fee bill and rental books are available. After this date, visit the CU Book Store in the UMC or cubookstore.com to rent or purchase your textbooks! You can charge them to your tuition and fee bill! It’s fast and easy! (www.cubookstore.com/c-71-order-textbooks.aspx)

Tuition. Review your online bill in MyCUInfo and pay on time. Find information about billing, payments, and refunds at bursar.colorado.edu.

Wardenburg health services. Complete the health insurance and immunization requirements online by September 4. View step-by-step instructions and check out the comprehensive health services offered on campus. (www.colorado.edu/health/newstudents)
Effective Bystander Intervention Skills

AUGUST 19–SEPTEMBER 9, MULTIPLE SESSIONS

This required session is offered multiple dates/times throughout the first few weeks of the semester. Almost everyone in our campus community will witness situations where help is needed, and what a bystander does may make all the difference. In this interactive session, we will explore the factors that hinder and promote helping and practice the range of skills for intervening effectively.

CU Kickoff

AUGUST 20, 8:30 P.M.

The Residence Hall Association (RHA) and Colorado Athletics jointly host the “CU Kickoff” in Folsom Field with an official welcome from CU Student Government and Student Affairs, followed by a pep rally featuring CU coaches and the running of Ralphie.

Connect @ the Rec

AUGUST 20, 9:00 P.M.

CU Boulder Recreation Services and the Residence Hall Association (RHA) invite you to come connect with your fellow students at this large, fun, active open house. Activities include bouldering in the climbing gym, ice skating, indoor putt-putt course, human foosball inflatable, swimming in the Buff pool, lawn games, outdoor movie, blender bikes, free pizza and more!

Convocation

AUGUST 21, 10 A.M.

Attendance at Convocation, the rite of induction into the CU-Boulder academic community, is essential and is expected of all new students. Students will hear from Chancellor Philip P. DiStefano, faculty, staff and student leaders, and will learn about the meaning and responsibilities of becoming CU-Boulder students.

Taste of CU

AUGUST 21, 11 A.M.

Immediately following the convocation, attendees will make their way to Taste of CU on Farrand Field for international food and music. This event is free for all new students wearing the Fall Welcome shirt they will receive during move-in. Also bring your Buff OneCard.

UMC Fall Fest

AUGUST 21, 7:30 P.M.

UMC Fall Fest features a variety of fun interactive activities and free food throughout the UMC. Activities include tie-dye shirts, improv comedy performances, free bowling in The Connection and much more! Be sure to arrive early to have your picture taken with CU’s live mascot, Ralphie!

Welcomefest Concert

AUGUST 22, 5:30 TO 10:30 P.M.

The annual CU Welcomefest Concert will take place on Farrand Field. Follow Program Council on Facebook to be the first one to know who is headlining this year’s concert!

I WISH I’D KNOWN

✔️ 10 A.M. AND 2 P.M. • EATON HUMANITIES, ROOM 135
Hear from current students about what they wish they’d known to be successful their first year at CU. Topics include stress, sleep, relationships and more.

OPEN TRIBAL-FUSION DANCE CLASS

✔️ 10 A.M. • UNIVERSITY THEATRE, ROOM W150
Start the semester with an all-level Tribal-Fusion dance class, taught by Donna Mejia. Professor Mejia will teach her distinctive dance class for movers unafraid of expressiveness, hardcore rhythms, hip work, athletic challenge and attentive body work. Bare feet and athletic clothing work best. There is a dressing room in the building (RR206).

TASTE OF CU

✔️ 11 A.M. • FARRAND FIELD
Taste of CU at Farrand Field is a signature event hosted by Housing and Dining Services following Convocation. Join us for great food, great music and a chance to connect with other new Buffs. Faculty and staff are welcome to enjoy Taste of CU, and should bring their Buff OneCard for admittance to the event.

PERFORMANCE FOR POSITIVE SOCIAL CHANGE

✔️ 12 P.M. • UNIVERSITY THEATRE BUILDING, ACTING STUDIO C240
Experience performance as a tool for empowerment and community resilience. Have you heard the term “Theatre for Social Change”? This interactive workshop—taught by Professor Beth Osnes—explores the power of truly empowering people to tell their stories, rehearse embodied advocacy, and actively listen to the other voices in the room. No experience necessary.
HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT DANCE AND THEATRE AT CU?

- 1 P.M. • UNIVERSITY THEATRE

Want a bagel? Want to find out more about dance and theatre at CU-Boulder? Want a tour of our building? Stop by the Theatre and Dance Main Office, room C132, to find out about classes and ways to get involved with productions.

EFFECTIVE BYSTANDER INTERVENTION SKILLS

- 2 P.M. AND 4 P.M. • EATON HUMANITIES, ROOM 1B50

Almost everyone in our campus community will witness situations where help is needed, and what a bystander does can make all the difference. In this interactive session, we will explore the factors that hinder and promote helping and practice the range of skills for intervening effectively. Incoming students are required to attend one of the Bystander Intervention Skills sessions offered.

LEEDSAPALOOZA

- 2 P.M. • KOELBEL BUILDING, ENGEBRETSON QUAD

New students in the Leeds School of Business will be able to learn about how to get more involved at Leeds, in addition to getting to know Leeds staff, faculty and student leaders. With activities and representatives from Leeds programs and student organizations, Leedsapalooza is a great opportunity for students to start their year off on the right foot.

LIBBY RAP WELCOME SOCIAL

- 2 P.M. • LIBBY HALL

All Libby RAP students are invited to attend our Welcome Social in the east courtyard of Libby Hall. Come make your own ice cream sundaes and meet other Libby RAP students, the faculty and staff, and get your Libby RAP T-shirt!

Fall Welcome is designed with one goal in mind—helping you transition successfully into, and through, your first year at CU-Boulder. By the end of your first year, you should:

1. Understand and meet academic expectations, engage in active learning, and use effective time management to balance academic work with extracurricular activities.

2. Understand the value of higher education and the worth of lifelong learning and scholarship.

3. Be familiar with student services and academic resources on campus, and actively use those resources.

4. Professionally engage with faculty in and outside of the classroom.

5. Interact effectively with peers in social settings and through educationally purposeful student activities.

6. Refine your short-term and long-term goals, learn about career management, and establish more specific career goals.

7. Achieve a higher competency in writing, note taking, critical thinking and quantitative reasoning to be able to master college-level work.

8. Expand your knowledge of human diversity and cultural competence.

9. Engage in activities leading to improved personal health and fitness, and learn about making responsible decisions in a college environment.

10. Be a positive and contributing member of the CU-Boulder community, engage in community service activities, and develop an understanding of sustainability and how to incorporate sustainable behaviors in daily activities.
