

CAMPUS MAP

SPONSORS

The RMPC is made possible through support by the Arts and Sciences Student Government, the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, the President's Fund for the Humanities, the Student Group Funding Board, and the Philosophy Department at the University of Colorado Boulder.

16th Annual Rocky Mountain
Philosophy Conference

RMPC

at the University of Colorado Boulder
April 4th & 5th @ Fleming Law Building

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Scott Soames

(University of Southern California)
"Propositions as Cognitive Acts"

L. A. Paul

(University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill)
"Transformative Experience and Finkish Preferences"

Margaret Urban Walker

(Marquette University)
"The Possibility of Reparations:
From Practice to Theory"

CONTRIBUTED PAPERS

FRIDAY, APRIL 4TH

4:30 - 6PM

Keynote Address: Scott Soames (University of Southern California)

“Propositions as Cognitive Acts”

Flemming 155

SATURDAY, APRIL 5TH

Flemming 156

Flemming 157

9AM - 10AM

“Normative Uncertainty and Subjective Oughts”

Christian Tarsney (University of Maryland)

Comments: Joe Fraley

“Truth Conditions Not Required”

Cameron Domenico Kirk-Giannini (Rutgers)

Comments: Erlantz Etxeberria

10AM - 11AM

“Deontic Modals and Expected Value”

Jonathan Wright (University of Southern California)

Comments: Caleb Pickard

“Act-Theoretic Propositions and Forceless Predication”

David Neely (CUNY Graduate Center)

Comments: Spencer Case

11AM - 12:30 PM

Keynote Address: L. A. Paul (University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill)

“Transformative Experience and

Finkish Preferences”

Flemming 156

12:30 - 2:30 PM

LUNCH

2:30 - 3:30 PM

“A Problem for Peer Averaging”

Eyal Tal (University of Arizona)

Comments: Rebecca Chan

“Plurality and Intensional Discourse”

Jesse Rappaport (CUNY Graduate Center)

Comments: Ben Rohrs

3:30 - 4:30 PM

“Justification, Permission, and Obligation”

Robert Beddor (Rutgers)

Comments: Michael Sechman

“A Defense of Nomic Error Theory”

Ian Tully (Washington University in St. Louis)

Comments: Daniel Coren

4:30 - 6 PM

Keynote Address: Margaret Urban Walker (Marquette University)

The Possibility of Reparations:

From Practice to Theory

Flemming 156