

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR 2019 PLC SCHOLARS

The PLC offices will be open all summer, however, our work hours are reduced and we have many off-site meetings. We are located in the Norlin Library, room M400E. If you would like to stop by to introduce yourself or ask questions, please email us prior to your visit so we can be sure to be in the office.

Note about enrollment in your first year PRLC courses:

IMPORTANT

PRLC 1810/1820 – You will take PRLC 1810 your first fall semester and 1820 your spring semester. The PLC office will enroll you in the course. Neither you nor your advisor will/should have access to add or modify your enrollment in this course.

Please leave room in your schedule for:

- TUES 6-8PM (PRLC 1810/1820 lecture) – required and only section available
- THURS 3:30-7:30 (PRLC 1810/1820 recitation) – you will only be in one, two-hour recitation but this window needs to be open for ease of enrollment.
Required and only two times available – TH 3:30-5:30 or 5:30-7:30

If your advisor has questions, please tell them to email me at jessie.Kasynski@colorado.edu

August 21: PLC Welcome Dinner @ Koenig Alumni Center, 5:30-7:30PM

- All incoming scholars and their parents are invited to meet and mingle with all of the current PLC scholars, staff, faculty; official invitations to follow

August 24-25: PLC First Year Orientation @ Cal-Wood Outdoor Ed (required)

- 9:00am Saturday meeting time through ~ 2pm Sunday drop-off back at campus

August 26: First Day of CU Boulder Classes

August 27: First PLC Lecture, 6-8PM – MUEN E0046

Oct 4: PLC Parents Lecture – PLC hosts John Huston – Polar Explorer; First Year students and parents are invited alongside other leadership students.

November 25-29: Fall Break and Thanksgiving – no classes

December 14-18: Finals week