More about Centennial State Prosperity:

CSP is a state-based 501(c)(4) nonprofit organization focused on finding solutions that ensure hardworking Coloradans can earn a good life, provide for their families, and participate in our democracy. Formed in early 2020, our accomplishments to date include helping to create and pass several important new Colorado laws, including: a paid sick days policy, a Prescription Drug Affordability Board, a public health insurance option, and a tax fairness package of bills that will level the playing field and help struggling families and business owners working to recover from the pandemic.
