

GLOBAL LIVINGSTON
INSTITUTE
LISTEN. THINK. ACT.

Looking for a way to learn about International Development while immersing yourself in East Africa?

Chances are you're a perfect fit for an experience with the Global Livingston Institute!

Some of our flagship programs in East Africa include university study abroad courses, women's leadership conferences, youth summits, high school leadership programs, research and community-based internships, and a cross-cultural public health music festival.

See what we have in store for the Summer of 2022!

Immersion Trip - July 11-25 (in-person experience)

Explore Uganda's capital city of Kampala, Lake Mburo National Park & serene Lake Bunyonyi with a GLI team member. Spend two weeks learning about Uganda's history & culture and immerse yourself in daily community development projects and conversations alongside local leaders & organizations!

East Africa Internship - June/August - 4 weeks (in-person experience)

Take part in GLI's international internship program based in Uganda! We customize placements according to your academic interests, experience & passions. Roles and projects range from work in Research, Operations, Community Engagement, Communications (Media & Marketing), Event Planning, & more!

Global Scholars Fellowship Program - July/August - 5 weeks (virtual course opportunity)

GSFP is an intensive, interactive, rigorous academic program for scholars who are highly motivated and eager to build international experience on a remote-basis. Students will be a part of a global community across US and East Africa interested in learning about international community development, research and cross cultural exchange.

Opportunity available to any/all students (undergraduate/graduate preferred, also open to incoming undergraduate freshman, high school and independent travelers).

Visit our website globallivingston.org/programs/trips to submit your application and join us on our next trip to East Africa!
