

PSCI 4243: Modern Warfare

Instructor: Jaroslav Tir

When: Maymester- MTWThF, 9-12

Where: CUGG 206

This class traces the evolution of warfare over the past century, by noting how ideological and identity factors have come to the forefront of violent political conflicts.

Tracks changes in the means of and reasons for fighting, roles of civilians and media, and rules of war.

Cases to be examined:

- WW I
- Irish fight for independence
- Cambodia
- Terrorism at the Olympics
- Israeli-Palestinian conflict
- And More!

