

INTERN THIS SCHOOL YEAR AT RANKED CHOICE VOTING FOR COLORADO!

Want to gain broad, multi-partisan political experience as you work toward your degree? Be a part-time intern for Ranked Choice Voting for Colorado (RCV4CO)!

Ranked Choice Voting (RCV) is the next critical electoral reform for Colorado. When voters rank their candidates, our elections become more fair, more competitive, and more issue-focused.

RCV4CO will be taking on two unpaid interns to work roughly ten hours/week over the fall and spring semesters as we push to expand RCV in Colorado.

This internship is for you if you would like to:

- Learn to navigate in a multi-partisan environment.
- Be part of building a more constructive political environment.
- Cultivate a set of career enhancing skills in the political reform space.

You will develop:

Communications Experience:

- Messaging to and dialoguing with audiences and stakeholders all over the political spectrum
- Managing and developing existing comms assets across a variety of media

Events Experience:

- Scheduling events including voter education events, local stakeholder meetings, and more
- Interacting with community groups and local grassroots organizers

Technical skills:

- Cultivating culturally appropriate, professional speech and writing ability
- Growing skills in Google suite, web design, and database management

We offer flexible hours and you may be eligible for external financial awards for your internship hours.
