STUDIO Undergrad Research Lab Department of Political Science

Are you interested in getting paid to do hands-on research in the social sciences? The STUDIO lab provides experiential learning in a setting that prioritizes diversity, equity and inclusion.

STUDIO lab fellows:

- Get paid to conduct cutting-edge social science research with a faculty member or Ph.D. student
- Be invited to social events for professionalization, networking, and training with faculty and Ph.D. students
- Have the opportunity to present their research in the political science department, apply to present at a professional conference, and submit an article to be considered for publication in the Colorado Political Science Review
- Can use federal work study funds (but are not required to do so)

All majors are welcome to apply, no previous research experience is required, and participation is paid.

Deadline to apply is Tuesday, June 1, 2021
