

Internships with Members of the US Congress representing Colorado

Members of Congress have interns working in their Colorado offices as well as in their Washington, DC, offices. Each member has their own application process and deadlines.

- US Senator Michael Bennet,
<https://www.bennet.senate.gov/public/index.cfm/internships>
- US Senator John Hickenlooper,
<https://www.hickenlooper.senate.gov/internships/>
- Rep. Diana DeGette (US House District 1, Denver),
<https://degette.house.gov/internships>
- Rep. Joe Neguse (US House District 2, Boulder),
<https://neguse.house.gov/programs/internships>
- Rep. Lauren Boebert (US House District 3, Silt),
<https://boebertforms.house.gov/forms/internships/>
- Rep. Ken Buck (US House District 4, Windsor),
<https://buck.house.gov/services/internships>
- Rep. Doug Lamborn (US House District 5, Colorado Springs),
<https://lamborn.house.gov/internship-form>
- Rep. Jason Crow (US House District 6, Aurora),
<https://crow.house.gov/services/internships>
- Rep. Brittany Pettersen (US House District 7, Lakewood),
<https://pettersen.house.gov/services/internship.htm>
- Rep. Yadira Caraveo (US House District 8, Thornton),
<https://caraveo.house.gov/services/internships>