Internship Description

Boulder City Council candidate, Jacques Decalo, is seeking an intern to assist with the campaign management of his 2023 campaign. Jacques is looking for an individual who is interested in coordinating his campaign operations, including fundraising, advertising, polling, getting out the vote (with direct contact to the public), publicity and other activities supporting the effort directly.

The campaign manager intern will function as a key staff person, contributing 10 hours weekly from August 1 to election day, November 7th. As the candidate has a team of advisors and experienced consultants involved in his campaign, in this role the intern will be mostly concerned with executing strategy.

Required skills:

- Good organizational ability
- Some knowledge of the local government political system
- A keen interest in political campaigns
- Broad awareness of environmental, social and public safety issues in the local community context
- Familiarity with social media
- Desire to make a difference

We understand that an internship is viewed primarily as an educational opportunity, and, as such, the intern will be provided with training, resources and feedback as a part of the experience.

Please contact Jacques Decalo by email jdecalo@gmail.com to discuss this opportunity. Thank you.
