

Introduction to Comparative Politics–Augmester

Instructor: Rachel O’Neal

Course Number: 2012

Description: Most countries confront a variety of common political problems, including how to gain popular support, what kinds of political institutions are most appropriate, and how to distribute burdens and benefits to different segments of the population. Concentrates on learning how to compare different political systems and provides illustrative examples from several countries in both the industrialized and nonindustrialized world. No prerequisites required.

