

Gender, Sexuality, and U.S. Law—Term B

Instructor: Madeline Mader

Course Number: 3301

Description: Contemporary and historic overview of U.S. courts' treatment of sex and gender. Using the case method, examines policy issues including, but not limited to: same sex marriage and civil unions; privacy; affirmative action; abortion; reproductive technologies; and discrimination based on sex and sexual orientation in education and in the workplace.

Recommended prerequisite: PSCI 1101

