

Global Development–Term A

Instructor: Marija Verner
Course Number: 4012

Description: Analyzes development theory, case studies in development strategies, and the problems and promises of development specifically issues of gender, environment, labor, corruption and poverty. The primary focus is on explanations for variation in level of development over time and across countries
Recommended prerequisites: PSCI 2012

