

PSCI 4302-001 European Union Politics- Jupille

This class is being taught in-person. Students are expected to attend class regularly and participate, and attendance and participation are graded components of the class. Students cannot Zoom in to in-person sessions, except for those who are ill or required to quarantine or isolate temporarily. There may be opportunities to receive participation credit by participating in Canvas discussions. Midterms and final exams will be delivered / taken in-person. The course modality will change only if the instructor becomes ill or of a change of modality is mandated by any relevant authority.