Internship – Republican Political Campaign

Russ For CD 3 is seeking intelligent, enthusiastic, and engaged individuals to work for our field and campaign operation. Internships are unpaid. Responsibilities include:

- Recruit and train volunteers to participate in the political process.
- Learn canvassing skills including operating canvassing/get-out-the-vote software, targeting voters with multiple points of contact throughout the campaign.
- Attend party specific events including Lincoln Day Dinners, County Party Meetings, Debates, Local GOP Group Meetings, Fundraisers, etc.
- Research and scheduling for voter outreach and get-out-the-vote efforts.
- Help with voter outreach efforts including calling and/or emailing voters in the district.

Full training and coaching will be provided by experienced campaign staffers. Interns will report to the Political Director and Campaign Manager.

Each intern should expect to help build our volunteer base. Interns will gain first-hand experience and exposure to political campaigning for federal office and will leave the campaign having made lasting connections and learning lifelong skills.

Requirements:

- Time Commitment: minimum of seven hours a week, maximum of 15 hours per week.
- Ideal candidates are highly organized, professional, reliable, prompt, detail-oriented, self-motivated, and receptive to constructive criticism.
- An interest in politics, conservative values, and political campaigns is highly desired and recommended.
- Familiarity with Google collaboration tools and Microsoft Excel is a must.
- Willingness to learn voter databases and get-out-the-vote (GOTV) systems.
- Willingness to wear formal business attire as required.
- Willingness to engage and communicate directly with voters through phone calls and door-to-door contact.
- Excellent note-taking capabilities highly desired.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills required.
